O R D E R:

In the reference 1st read above, Sri Reddy Yesupadam Brother-in-Law of Dr. K.A.Paul, who was confined at Dist. Jail, Ongole has lodged a complaint before the AP State Human Rights Commission, Hyderabad levelling certain corruption allegations against Sri Y. Rajesh, the then Supdt., District Jail, Ongole.

2. In the reference 2nd read above, the Director General of Prisons and Correctional Services, A.P., while enclosing the enquiry report of Sri B. Sunil Kumar, IG, Prisons, has stated that he has conducted an enquiry against the Accused Officer (A.O.) and reported that there are missing links which have to be traced out and some Independent Department have to cause an enquiry. Hence, the case was entrusted to Anti Corruption Bureau, on 10.01.2013, for an enquiry and report in the matter.

3. In the reference 4th read above, the Investigating Agency in its final report has recommended for Departmental action against the A.O. under Rule 3(1) & Rule 3(1) (2) of APCS (Conduct) Rules, 1964, for his negligence in duties in sending the Under Trial Prisoner to hospital for treatment belatedly and on his false statement before IG, Prisons that he did not know one Sri Sai Chand, but the call data established that he talked with him. The Director General, Anti Corruption Bureau, however, concluded that other allegations of corruption could not be established due to lack of evidence in the case.

4. In his representation 5th read above, the A.O. Sri Y. Rajesh, Supdt. of Jails, Cherlapally, R.R. District has stated that the Remand Prisoner Sri. K. A.Paul was first referred to GGH, Guntur on health grounds on 15.07.2012, but he refused to go, showing security reasons. Again on 17.07.2012 when he was about to be referred to GGH, the same day, the DIG, Prisons came to Inspection and on his enquiry, it was replied to him that once the prisoner is referred to outside the Head Quarters hospital, he will never be back to Jail and will be enlarged on bail under medical grounds. Subsequently, the Prisoner was sent to RIMS, Ongole on 20.07.2012 and as per their reference, he was sent to a Higher Institution and enlarged on bail. He has further represented that the Remand Prisoner Sri K. A. Paul did not make any complaint against him during his stay in the prison and subsequently he filed his explanation before APHRC and the case was also closed.

5. The A.O. has finally stated that at no point of time, he demanded and accepted the bribe directly or through mediators. The Remand Prisoner Sri K. A. Paul is a highly influential person and the complainant is brother-in-law to him and they wanted out of the way and against the rules facilities, but he refused to do the same and that is the reason they have prepared a false complaint against him but never pursued the case after release of the remand prisoner Mr. K.A.Paul. The A.O. Sri Y. Rajesh, Supdt. of Jails, Cherlapally, R.R. District has therefore requested to pass appropriate orders on his representation and to drop further action against him.

6. Government, after careful examination of the final report of Anti Corruption Bureau and keeping in view the contentions made by the Accused Officer in his representation and the circumstances of the case, hereby drop further action against the Accused Officer Sri Y. Rajesh, Supdt. of Jails, Cherlapally, R.R. District, on the allegations made by Sri Reddy Yesupadam Brother-in-Law of Dr.K.A.Paul, the then Remand Prisoner.

7. The Director General of Prisons and Correctional Services, Andhra Pradesh shall take further necessary action accordingly.
